Dear Parents and Guardians,

We recognize that electronic communication devices are an important part of our everyday world. However, we do not want these devices to interfere with the students' learning environment. Please read the following discipline rules with your student and return the form with your signatures. Thank you.

1. Students must follow school rules when using any of the following electronic communication devices (ECDs):
  - Cell phones
  - Computers
  - Pagers
  - Portable game units
  - Similar means of communicating electronically person-to-person or through social networking sites such as Facebook, MySpace, and Twitter.
2. School rules apply when students are involved in any school activity, including:
  - Attending class
  - Participating in any activity on school campus
  - Going to and from school
  - Eating lunch on or off campus
  - Attending school-sponsored activities off campus, such as field trips, dances
  - Attending school-related activities off campus, such as football away games
3. The following school rules define misuse of ECDs at any of the above activities.
  - Refusal to turn off an ECD when told to by a teacher, administrator, coach, counselor, or other school official
  - Damaging an ECD owned by the school
  - Causing disruption
  - Using an ECD to cheat, including getting and giving answers to tests and copying from the Internet
  - Using an ECD to bully, threaten, harass, or attack another student or school personnel whether or not communicated directly to that person

<sup>1</sup> Note: These rules are suggestive only and are not intended to take the place of expert advice and assistance from a lawyer. If specific legal advice or assistance is required, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

- Sending (or asking to receive) pictures or videos of people who are partially or completely undressed, or are pretending to or actually performing a sexual act
4. Additionally, the school may punish students who misuse ECDs away from school on their own time if both of the following are true:
- The student's use of the ECD causes significant disruption at school or serious harm to the school, other students, or school personnel
  - The student knew, or should have known, that the harm would happen
5. When a student misuses an ECD, the school may do the following, as long as the severity of the school's action matches the seriousness of the student's misuse of the ECD:
- Search the ECD within the context of the alleged misuse
  - Warn the student, verbally or in writing
  - Take away the ECD. Depending upon the offense, the school may keep the ECD for the rest of the school day or longer
  - Deny the student the privilege of participating in extracurricular and athletic activities
  - Contact the student's parents, school security, or the police
  - Suspend or expel the student from school in accord with student discipline procedures

I have received a copy of these Student Discipline Rules governing my use of electronic communication devices (ECDs). I understand that failure to follow these rules may result in discipline and affect my right to use ECDs while at school and at school-sponsored or related activities both on and off campus.
